• Developer full-stack in the company ACCENTURE

From 2022 to 2024, I worked as a Full-Stack Web Developer on two projects. In the first, I developed an email marketing website using React, TypeScript, Redux for store management, Node.js, Express.js, and MongoDB. The frontend was adapted for mobile devices following a mobile-first strategy. In the second project, I participated in creating a site to evaluate business opportunities, using Angular, TypeScript, NgRx, Node.js, Express.js, and AWS. The frontend was also designed with a mobile-first approach. In both projects, we implemented agile methodologies and I had experience implementing branching strategies (Gitflow) in DevOps environments.

• Developer full-stack in the company LÖSEN

From 04-2022 to 07-2022. Responsible for creating the front-end for repositories such as logipartes.com.ar, Fabricante.logipartes.com.ar and distribuidor.logipartes.com.ar, using technologies such as Nextjs and Tailwind.
